

GROUND RULES
Round Lake Management Planning

- 1) Avoid speaking when someone else has the floor.
- 2) Avoid personal attacks or accusations.
- 3) Respect that others are here to speak; allow them time and opportunity to do so.
- 4) Listen as others speak.
- 5) The group will focus on issues of the present where possible.
- 6) Group members will participate in the entire process and will holistically address the watershed issues.
